

THIN FRAIL PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE TANLAC

Hundreds of Men and Women All Over America Appear To Be Physical Wrecks Simply Because Their Systems Are Starving for Nourishment.

There are hundreds of thin, run-down, nervous men and women all over the United States who should be strong, sturdy and vigorous, with rich, red blood tingling through their veins and feeling brimful of life and energy, if they would only profit by the experience of others all over the United States and Canada, and assist nature to digest the food they eat, by simply taking Tanlac.

Millions of people have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by Tanlac after other remedies have failed, but large numbers of them have reported a remarkable and rapid increase in weight and a return to normal health and strength by its use.

In fact, so phenomenal have been the gains in weight by thin, frail people through the use of Tanlac that this remarkable preparation is now being procured everywhere as the World's Greatest Tonic.

The food people eat does them absolutely no good unless they digest it properly. When you suffer from indigestion and other forms of stomach trouble, the food does you harm instead of good, because food which is not digested stays in the stomach and ferments, causing pain, swelling, gas on stomach, shortness of breath, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness and many other disagreeable symptoms. If this condition is permitted to run on for an indefinite period the entire system becomes saturated with poisons, the patient becomes thin and pale and in time various complications are apt to result.

Tanlac is a powerful reconstructive tonic and quickly overcomes this condition by aiding nature to eliminate the impurities from the system in a natural way and enable the vital organs to properly perform their functions. That is why it is called Nature's Medicine.

In fact, there is not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the entire system. Next, it enables the weak, worn-out stomach to thoroughly digest its food and convert the nourishing elements into bone, blood and muscle. The result is you feel strong, sturdy and well with the proper amount of flesh, as Nature intended. Sold by all good druggists.

Two Varieties of Hard Luck. There are two kinds of people always in hard luck; those who didn't do it, but never thought; and those who thought, but never did it.—Josh Wise.

A MESSAGE TO TIRED, SICK FOLKS

Don't Drag Through Life Half Sick and Half Well. Take This Advice.

Go to your druggist and ask him for Gude's Pepto-Mangan and take it with your meals for a few weeks and see how your health improves.

The German note to the reparations commission in response to the commission's demand for explanations of Germany's alleged inability to meet her obligations for January and February, requests that Germany be relieved of all cash payments in 1922. It also asks for a general reduction in cash payments and an increase in payments in kind.

Whether Private D. J. Honey of the battalion of American marines stationed at Canaquey, will be tried on a charge of killing Ramon Garcia, a Cuban, by the American military or Cuban civil authorities is being considered by the Cuban and American governments. It is said in press dispatches to Havana newspapers from Canaquey.

The Austrian cabinet of Chancellor Schober, which recently resigned, has resumed office, with some change in the list of ministers.

Sir Ernest Shackleton, the noted English explorer, is dead, having passed away aboard his ship, the "Quest," upon which he was en route to the south polar regions with a body of scientists. The Quest sailed from London September 17 to make a 30,000-mile cruise of small islands in the antarctic. Although the smallest ship ever used in such an undertaking, she was equipped with hydrographic surveys and soundings, and was to take data on flora and fauna and geological structure. Shackleton was 47 years old and for twenty years had been under the spell of the far-southern seas.

Beneath the flagstones of St. Peter's, where thousands of pilgrims come each year, lies the mortal remains of Benedict XV, whose benignant efforts, through all the years of war were directed toward peace and after the pacification of Europe and the world, he died.

The body of Viscount Bryce was cremated recently at London after simple but impressive services. No eulogy was offered but the officiating minister in his prayer paid a tribute to the late political historian in calling him a "blessed and powerful peace-maker throughout the whole world, and especially between the nations of Great Britain and America."

The Cuban minister in Washington, Carlos Manuel De Céspedes, has initiated diplomatic negotiations for the withdrawal of American marines from Canaquey, according to a statement issued at the national palace, giving the text of a message from the minister to President Zayas.

Dr. Juan Gutierrez, secretary of public health, heads the commission on arrangements for the sixth Latin American congress, to be held in Havana November 20-25, is announced recently. Other members are Dr. Francisco Cabrera Saavedra, eminent Cuban surgeon, vice president, Dr. F. Maria Fernandez, secretary, Dr. Emilio Martinez and Dr. Jose A. Lopez del Valle, superintendent of the Havana Board of Health.

Railroads which earned more than 6 per cent upon the value of their property used in transportation during the period from September 1, 1920, to January, 1921, are required, under order of the interstate commerce commission, to turn half of the excess so earned over to the government.

The groundwork for another international conference to rewrite the laws of war for the submarine and other new agencies of attack on land and sea, has been completed by the arms delegates.

Senator Reed of Missouri went after his colleagues who voted to send Senator Newberry in on uncertain terms, in the course of a recent talk to the senate. "No word of tongue and no word of pen can describe the degradation of that resolution and self-confessed degradation of those who supported it," he observed in the course of his remarks.

One hundred or more persons were killed and many more injured in the collapse under the weight of two feet of snow, of the roof of the Knickerbocker theater, Washington, a motion picture house, located in the heart of the fashionable northwest section. All was confusion for hours after the crash, while police, firemen, marines from the nearby barracks and soldiers strove to burrow beneath the mass of debris and rescue those buried underneath.

The program of addresses at the national agricultural conference, which covered marketing problems in many phases, was interrupted long enough to permit Chairman Anderson to deny the charge voiced in some quarters that the delegates to the conference were hand-picked.

Secretary Weeks informed delegates to the National Agricultural conference, in session in Washington, that "if there was no Ford offer" he would "recommend to congress the completion of the Wilson dam at Muscle Shoals, Ala."

Request of Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll for war department recommendation for commutation of sentence for her son, Irvin C. Bergdoll, sentenced to four years in the disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, for draft evasion, has been denied.

The Shantung tie-up and the blizzard that paralyzed traffic and communication in Washington combined to block the progress of the arms conference, but the delay did not dim prevailing confidence that all the conference issues soon will be carried forward to conclusion.

The president sent a message to the sufferers of the Knickerbocker tragedy, in which he expressed sorrow at the worst disaster Washington has known in many years.

Senator Capper of Kansas says he will try to get the senate to investigate into the cause of the recent Knickerbocker theater disaster. He intends, if it is possible, to fix the responsibility.

The house declared itself in favor of the government exerting its authority in an effort to stamp out lynchings passing by a vote of 230 to 119 the Dyer anti-lynching bill. Seventeen Republicans joined 102 Democrats in voting in the opposition while eight Democrats and one Socialist, London, of New York, voted with 221 Republicans in favor of the measure.

Investigation by the senate of the activities of "Persons, association, corporation and combinations, commonly known as the fertilizer and water-power trusts," alleged to be attempting to prevent lease by the government of the Muscle Shoals project, is provided in a resolution introduced in the senate recently by Senator Harris, of Georgia. Mr. Harris said he would ask for consideration of the resolution probably very soon.

The machinery of the Washington conference virtually came to a standstill while the delegates awaited results from President Harding's move for a settlement of the Shantung controversy.

The Southern Express company must pay taxes assessed upon it by the state of South Carolina for the year 1918, the supreme court dismissing recently, upon motion of counsel, an appeal which the company had brought to have reviewed decisions by the courts of that state. The company contended that it had been deprived of taxable property in the state when the railroads were placed under federal control in December, 1917.

Reduction in the wage scales of officers and men on shipping board vessels amounting to more than fifteen per cent and effective February 6, is announced by the shipping board.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announces the offer of an issue of 4 3/4 per cent three-year short-term notes to the amount of approximately $400,000,000. The issue is to provide for current expenses, the retirement of treasury certificates of indebtedness maturing February 16, 1922, and as a part of the treasury's program for retiring notes maturing May 20, 1923.

The demand for early action on immigration legislation that would further restrict entrance of aliens into the United States, was made recently in the senate by Senator Harris, senior senator from Georgia.

Completion of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., project has been recommended to the national agricultural conference by the committee on transportation.

No mention was made regarding the offer of any parties to the government to lease the plants there.

WASHINGTON.—The government forces have confiscated 8,000,000 gallons of alcoholic beverages during the year, the internal revenue reports show, while 40,000 persons were arrested for alleged violations. The confiscations were thirty times as large as in the preceding year.

The dry agents swept into their net property and liquors valued at $12,000,000 in the last 12 months. The most flagrant violations occurred in New York, Ohio, South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

Delaware, with only 53 gallons of liquor seized and 14 persons arrested, was the best behaved, while long-dry Kansas was a close second. Nevada

Auxiliary Naval Craft in Time of War

NAVAL officials are urging that President Harding and the shipping board, in submitting a ship subsidy program to congress, develop a scheme which will encourage the construction and maintenance of vessels which can be used as auxiliary naval craft in time of war.

Considerations involved in the national defense may cause the administration to approve the formula for determining the amount of subsidy to be paid a ship owner which is favored by naval experts, rather than the formula approved by the American merchant marine joint committee, made up of ship owners, operators, and builders.

The American merchant marine joint committee, in its recommendations submitted to the ship subsidy conference, held under the auspices of the shipping board, urged that the subsidy be paid under the Gallinger plan of so much a gross ton a year, and that the faster passenger ships be encouraged by means of a postal subvention.

The Gallinger plan, which was approved by the congressional committee headed by the late Senator Gallinger in 1905, was one of the three alternatives suggested in the preliminary recommendations of the committee of experts appointed by the shipping board. Of the other two alternatives proposed by the experts, one contemplated reimbursement on the basis of 3-1-3 per cent of the sea wages paid to officers and crew who are American citizens.

The other proposed a differential based on a combination of speed, tonnage and distance covered, or, in other words, the payment of a certain number of cents a gross ton for each 100 miles steamed in the foreign trade.

Complications which have been made by the shipping board experts indicate the need of about 100 ships in the American merchant marine suitable for naval auxiliaries. At present there are only about forty such ships.

any interference with the scenic beauties or the legitimate purposes for which the national park was organized. If my colleague will let the bill go over, I shall be obliged to him.

Mr. Smoot. The general land office is now engaged in marking out the boundaries of the park. The senator knows the conditions in Alaska. The men are there already to do the work, and if this is not accomplished and the whole survey made by the latter part of June it will have to go over again.

Mr. King.—I know my colleague and I entertain the same views as to the right to mine, if it can be done without interfering with the legitimate purposes of the park, and I am sure that the officials of the Interior department, with such little aid as I may give, can work out a plan that will be satisfactory.

Mr. Smoot.—This is a department bill. It was sent to me to be introduced, and, of course, the department makes a favorable report upon it. There was a favorable report made upon it once before. It is a house bill, and passed the house without any opposition whatever.

Elaborate Plan for Outlawry of Mars

FROM Chicago to President Harding has come from the American Committee for the Outlawry of War a resolution favoring an international plan. Salmon L. Levinson says he and the late Senator Knox of Pennsylvania worked on it for 18 months and that Senator Knox would have championed it before the arms conference had he lived.

The plan calls for a "conference of all the civilized nations to be called for the creation and codification of international law; the code to contain, among other things, the following:

The further use of war as an international dispute shall be abolished. War between nations shall be declared to be a public crime punishable by the law of nations.

War shall be defined in the code and the right of defense against actual or imminent attack shall be preserved.

All annexations, exactions, or seizures by force, duress or fraud shall be null and void.

An international court, with affirmative jurisdiction over purely international disputes, shall be created, modeled as nearly as may be on the early assembling of a Republican senate conference to reconcile any differences which may be found to exist in party councils over the form to be given legislation for refunding allied debts.

Two members of the cabinet, Secretary Weeks and Attorney General Daugherty, participated, as did Chairman John T. Adams of the Republican national committee, Senators Lodge, Watson of Indiana, Curtis, Brandegee and Mcumber, Speaker Gillett and Republican Leader Mondell from the house.

As a result of discussions, senate leaders had an outline of a program for the senate which indicated that after disposing of the Newberry contest and the proposed amendment to the federal reserve act, action first would be sought on the foreign debt funding measure. The soldier bonus bill was slated as next in line.

Following the bonus bill, senators said, either the tariff or the treaties produced by the arms conference would be the senate's work.
